

GOV. COX NOMINATED ON 44TH BALLOT

OHIO GOVERNOR PARTY NOMINEE AFTER LONG BATTLE OF BALLOTS

DEADLOCK BROKEN AT 3:45 THIS MORNING

BULLETIN

AUDITORIUM, San Francisco, Calif., July 6.—James M. Cox, governor of Ohio, was nominated for president of the United States in the Democratic national convention at 1:40 o'clock (western time) this morning. The nomination came at the conclusion of a forty-four ballot struggle in which he had steadily beaten down the forces of William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, and President Wilson's son-in-law.

When the balloting on the forty-fourth vote had gotten to a point where Cox had seven hundred and two votes, and was rapidly approaching the necessary two thirds of seven hundred and twenty-nine, Sam M. Amidon of Kansas, manager of the McAdoo forces and vice-chairman of the Democratic national committee, took the platform and moved that the nomination of Governor Cox be made unanimous. Immediately there was a roar from the tired and worn delegates which lasted for a full four minutes before Chairman Robinson could put the question on Amidon's motion to suspend the rules and nominate Cox by acclamation.

At 1:45 o'clock that morning the motion was formally voted over with a rolling chorus of ayes and a rashing of the brass band.

State standards which had surged back and forth in the desperate battles of the deadlock raced to the front of the hall and to a place before the platform.

The convention adjourned until noon Tuesday.

Auditorium, San Francisco, July 6.—Cox forces soon after midnight jubilant with a new high level in the balloting and predicting further accessions defeated a motion to adjourn the convention which had the support of the McAdoo forces. The Cox people wanted to press their advantages, the McAdoo people wanted to adjourn. A roll call was forced and the convention proceeded to its forty-second ballot apparently well on its way to the forty-sixth ballot record.

Auditorium, San Francisco, July 5.—The Georgia delegation was reported on a caucus went over to Cox under the unit rule for the next ballots.

The motion to adjourn was defeated. The Cox people thus won their determination to continue striking while the iron was hot and press their advantages. The McAdoo states for the most part voted for an adjournment at some of them did vote against it.

Auditorium, San Francisco, July 6.—During the forty-second ballot Cox went over five hundred for the first time. Cox fell just seven and a half votes short of a majority.

The changes were: Cox gained 43, carrying him within seven and a half of a majority; McAdoo lost 33; Davis lost 6, and Palmer's vote had dwindled to eight.

Auditorium, San Francisco, July 5.—Attorney General Palmer at 9:45 o'clock tonight at the close of the thirty-eight ballot released his delegates and left the Democratic National convention free to move out of its deadlock and nominate a presidential candidate.

At the end of the second ballot after the recess when the Palmer vote had touched two hundred and eleven and it was apparent that it could not be driven higher, former Representative C. C. Carlin of Virginia, Mr. Palmer's manager took the platform and announced the withdrawal of the attorney general from the race.

Chairman Robinson, in presenting him said significantly he was presenting a man who had an announcement to make which he was confident the convention would want to hear.

Expectation was in the air and the convention, which only a moment before had been in the height of disorder quieted down as Carlin took the speakers' place and said in substance:

"I am about to make an announcement of greatest importance to this convention at the conclusion of which I shall move a recess for twenty minutes to give the convention opportunity to decide what course it shall take."

A. Mitchell Palmer asks me to express his sincere thanks and appreciation to every delegate who had voted for his nomination but he is unwilling to delay the proceedings further and authorized me to finally, positively and Auditorium, San Francisco, July 5.—The Democratic national convention took fourteen ballots in its first session today and failing to find a nominee took a recess at 4:58 o'clock until 8:30 o'clock this evening.

When the afternoon balloting was in the closing stage the Palmer boom was taking an upward excursion—the fact the first it has enjoyed since it took the clip in the twelfth ballot last week. The McAdoo votes had taken the leading place from the Cox votes and the Cox column had finally regained some of its strength.

When the session ended the three principal contenders were probably close to getting together but had been for a long time and if it meant anything, it meant that the deadlock was a little tighter.

The first grand lodge session will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, the principal business of this and succeeding sessions to be the election of a grand exalted ruler and the selection of next year's convention city. San Francisco with William McAdoo as its representative, is making a strong bid for both honors.

The climax of the convention will come on Wednesday night when a monster parade will be held in honor of the 70,000 Elks who served with the colors during the war.

General John J. Pershing, who is a member of the El Paso lodge of the order, has been asked to head the parade.

BENNY LEONARD WINS FROM CHARLEY WHITE

Knocks Out Chicago Fighter in Ninth Round—Up to that Time
White Had Carried the Battle to the Champion—Short Fight to Chin Started White's Finish.

Benton Harbor, Mich., July 5.—Benny Leonard, the light weight champion of the world, fighting his first battle in six months, knocked out the dangerous hitting Charley White of Chicago in the ninth round of a bitterly fought scheduled ten round championship contest here this afternoon. The battle fought before a capacity crowd of twelve to fifteen thousand persons was finished amid tremendous excitement and the end came when it looked as if White was going to stay the limit, and perhaps hold the championship even.

White carried the fight to Leonard and had the better of the first seven rounds. He fought a game battle and surprised his admirers until Leonard landed a smash on the chin early in the ninth round. White knocked and partially shoved Leonard thru the ropes in the fifth round. The champion fell outside the ring and the referee had counted four before Leonard was pushed back inside the ropes. A short right hand punch to the chin which Leonard had been trying to land all thru the fight, was a start of White's finish in the ninth. White dropped to his hands and knees and altho dazed, refused to take the referee's Claxton and keep up his work all right. They lost several during the war and one of the best members, Norman Campbell, moved to Jacksonville. The band is called for in a good many places. The members are agreeable gentlemen and all understand their business.

On the return to the church Rev. J. O. Kirkpatrick preached a patriotic sermon following which Claxton took down the service flag which carried a star for each of the boys who were in the service during the war.

SENATOR REED SCORES LEAGUE AT KANSAS CITY

Asserts Silence on Issue
Would Have Won Him Seat

ONE MAN POWER IS ASSAILED

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 5.—The league of nations was denounced as "league of treason and a covenant of national death" by Senator James A. Reed, who returned here today from San Francisco where he was refused a seat as delegate to the Democratic national convention.

Senator Reed, addressing a mass-meeting in convention hall here, declared that he was privately assured while his case was being heard, that the credentials committee would seat him if he would agree to keep silent in regard to the league of nations on the convention floor. His refusal to make such an agreement was responsible for his being denied a seat, he said.

"If there's one lesson that this country needs to learn," he continued, "it is that this is not a one man country. It is a 110,000,000 man country." Without direct personal reference, the senator declared there was little difference between the doctrine of the divine right of kings and the modern doctrine that a man elected to office becomes thereby a leader, and that all who differ with him are excommunicated and outcasts.

M'ADOO HEARD IN PATRIOTIC JULY 4TH SPEECH

PRaised CIVIL WAR VETERANS

HUNTINGTON, N. Y., July 5.—Yielding to the noisy demand of 500 Huntington villagers assembled for Independence Day exercises, William Gibbs McAdoo today delivered his first public utterance since the convention began.

Speaking extemporaneously he took as his theme "Patriotism and the Revolutionary Fathers."

"We are here today because a small group of patriots met together and had the vision to conceive a great idea and the courage to carry it out," he said.

He turned toward a group of Civil War veterans seated on the platform and continued:

"These men responded to the call to vindicate liberty and as a result organized a great union strong enough to vindicate Democracy and destroy autocracy when the call came. The men who died in Flanders gave their lives for a similar purpose, for their vision of preserving liberty, and we must not fail to rededicate to their vision."

Mr. McAdoo attended the exercises merely as a spectator, but some one discovered him and called for a speech. The cry was taken up by others and at last the former secretary of the treasury yielded. He made no reference to contemporary politics.

TWO MEN CHARGED WITH PLOT TO EXTORT BIG SUM

Threatening Letter Demanded
$40,000 From Len
Small of Kankakee

CHICAGO, July 5.—Newcomb Palmer, a young farmer of Momence, Ill., is being held at Chicago and Byron Candell, a former employee of Palmer is in jail at Kankakee, Ill., charged with an attempt to extort $40,000 from Len Small, Republican candidate for governor of Illinois. Threats to kill Mr. Small and members of his family were contained in a letter now in the hands of the police, authorities declared.

According to the police Palmer has made a confession in which he said that Candell proposed writing the threatening letter containing the demand for the money and that he finally consented.

The letter, police officials said, instructed Mr. Small to leave the $40,000 at a designated spot on the Kankakee-Momence road last Friday night.

Officers were notified, it was said, and a detail of Chicago police carrying a decoy package, followed instructions. Nothing happened.

An acquaintance of Palmer is said by the police to have furnished the evidence leading to the arrest of the two men.

DEMOCRATIC SPOKESMAN

MARION, O., July 5.—Marion today paid tribute to Senator Harding, Republican candidate for the presidency on his return with Mrs. Harding, to his home here from Washington for the first time since his nomination. It was a big day for the little Ohio city.

The celebration began early and lasted until tonight when in the presence of a crowd of home folk, that crowded the large lawn of the Harding residence and overflowed to the opposite sidewalk, Senator Harding was officially welcomed by D. R. Crisinger, president of the Marion Civic association.

The senator replied in a brief speech in which he opposed one-man government and urged the restoration of normal conditions as a steady force for civilization which, he said, had been fevered by the supreme upheaval of all the world.

Partisanship took no part in today's celebration and both speakers carefully avoided any reference to politics. Senator Harding, in concluding introduced his wife as a "faithful friend, who knows my faults but has stuck to me."

Mr. Crisinger, himself a Democrat, told his hearers:

"I admonish you, my fellow citizens that Senator Harding will ride the Democratic mule into the white house in November as president of the United States."

Mr. Crisinger added that he knew "your enthusiasm and appreciation will prompt your votes to be cast irrespective of party ties so as to make it possible for each of you to extend the right hand of fellowship to Florence Harding as the first lady of the land, to Warren G. Harding as, the president of the United States."

Mr. Crisinger declared the senator to be a "real fellow, a man who thoroughly knows his business and does it, and the printer's rule which he always carries is his rabbit foot."

But Senator Harding did not receive all the tributes. He was compelled to share it about fifty-fifty with Mrs. Harding in the welcoming ceremonies.

The senator's speech was delivered from the front porch of his home and was the forerunner of many others expected to follow from the same place in the "front porch" campaign. Later he and Mrs. Harding stood on their steps for an hour and shook hands with their fellow townsmen.

MARIE ANTOINETTE AND THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

The National Republican Committee in a recently issued publicity platform says modern historical experts pronounce untrue the story that Marie Antoinette remarked on hearing that French peasants had not enough bread, "Why don't they eat cake?" This leads us to wonder whether historical experts of 140 years hence will pronounce untrue the story that Attorney General Palmer, on hearing that the price of meat was too high for American laborers, remarked, "Why don't they buy cheaper cuts?" It is a pity to lose a good story. Yet it must be admitted that historical experts present almost unanswerable evidence of the apocryphal nature of the Marie Antoinette anecdote. For if the tale were true, it is impossible to see how Marie could have escaped the brilliant and statesmanlike idea of instituting a "save on bread week."

THE K. OF C. MISSION TO FRANCE.

The unveiling of the statue to Lafayette at Metz next August, and the presentation to Marshall Foch of a baton by the Knights of Columbus will form a graceful interchange of international courtesies.

The baton, made of gold from from California and sapphires from Montana, and inscribed with the names of fifty-two States and possessions that make up the United States, will be a product of American art and will typify in a fitting way the unity of the country whose regard it is designed to convey to the great French commander under whom our own soldiers fought.

In these days after the war, when the united purpose and action of the war period are too apt to be forgotten in the rancors of political discussion, the tribute to be paid by the Knights of Columbus to Lafayette and to Foch will come as a significant reminder and demonstration of the essential sympathy that binds the French and American republics.

SOME OLD PRICES.

Capt. W. A. Kirby remarked yesterday that he was born in Mendon and came to this place in 1847 and for a year the family lived in the house occupied for some time by Braxton Davignon. It is situated on the west side of South Main street just south of Cannon's plumbing establishment. A year later his father bought the block bounded on the east by Fayette street and on the west of Kosiusko street. It contained a small brick house on the corner of Kosiusko street and College avenue and the whole cost $600.

His father made some additions to the house and occupied it the rest of his life. In the garret of that house more than one fugitive slave has been sequestered while on his way to freedom for Rev. William Kirby believed in that case it was better to obey God than man.

The land owned by the Jacksonville hospital cost the state probably $10 an acre. A part of it was very low and wet and regarded almost worthless. Last year the captain had the pleasure of visiting Mendon and found some elderly people who remembered his parents and were especially strong in praise of his mother, so useful in Sunday school and every other place where the superior talents of a devoted Christian woman would be of use to her fellow creatures.

SEWER PLANT STRIKE ON AT WHITE HALL

Management of Plant Not Disposed to Recognize Union. — William Bishop Suffers Painful Injury — News Notes.

White Hall, July 5.—There is no change in the strike situation at the plants of the White Hall Sewer Pipe & Stoneware Co. The company is not disposed to recognize the newly formed union, and the contest has resolved into a finished one, with prospects that the plants will remain idle indefinitely.

Lawrence Fulton and Miss Leslie Sweetin were married Saturday and have taken up their residence here. The groom is a son of J. B. Fulton, and the bride a daughter of George Sweetin. He has been employed in the orchard district near Patterson for some months.

P. R. Dunn, White Hall's democratic candidate for state senator, spent Saturday in Roodhouse, where he is receiving the most wholesome support. He will be down in Jersey county this week, and will give a whole lot of attention to Macoupin and Montgomery counties.

At last accounts Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Spencer had reached the Grand Canyon of Colorado on their westward automobile journey. They will probably not return until October.

William Bishop is suffering with a terribly lacerated hand. He was assisting in repairs on the scales at the south elevator. J. F. Goodall was prying from underneath and Bishop was resting his hand on the rod that connects with the scale bar as the rod became unhooked and the entire weight came down the hook entering the side of the hand at the thumb and going entirely thru.

The X-ray machine was used to clear the hand of rust. It was a terrible situation in which he found himself, and with presence of mind Goodall raised the pressure from below and Bishop unhooked his hand. However, the pain has been severe.

John King, the two-year-old son of Frank King, drank a quantity of sulphuric acid Saturday evening that had nearly prostrated the little fellow in death when he was relieved by prompt medical attention.

School Superintendent R. G. Smith leaves this week on a circuit of chautauqua work in Illinois and Iowa.

Stella, daughter of Herman Roberts, ran a long splinter in her foot three weeks ago, and failure to extract all of it was causing a terrible condition when Dr. W. C. Tunison on a more thorough examination found pieces of the splinter still imbedded in the foot and removed them in time to avoid fatal complications.

Sullivan Birthday and Anniversary Picnic.

Mrs. Sullivan entertained the family and a few friends Saturday evening at a picnic in Nichols Park to celebrate the 39th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sullivan and the birthdays of W. E. and Lee A. Sullivan, all of which fall on the same day.

They enjoyed a splendid supper at 7 o'clock after which the young folks spent some time on the playground. A fireworks display later in the evening furnished entertainment for all. Attending were: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sullivan and daughter, Miss Leta; Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Wait, Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Sullivan and daughter Katherine Lou, Mr. and Mrs. Ben O. Roodhouse and daughters, Maurine and Christine; Mr. and Mrs. I. V. Page and Harold Summers of Roodhouse.

James A. Herne's Immortal Stage Drama

Romance—Action—Contrast—Thrills

For 30 years unnumbered thousands have laughed and cried, have been thrilled and exalted by this mightiest of American dramas! A father's iron will clashing with his daughters' love for an honest man. Characters like cameos. Scenes of power and resistless momentum, transpiring in the atmosphere of strait-laced New England. This picture shows why James A. Herne's tremendous stage play stands as the greatest American drama of two generations. A production that is as fine as money and care can make it. The famous light-house scene when the "Liddy Ann" goes on the rocks in the grip of the sou'easter, is the most thrilling portrayal of a shipwreck that has thus far been achieved on the screen.

PEKIN WALLOPS INDEES THREE TIMES

Visitors Win Sunday and Monday's Games by Scores of 6 to 4 and 4 to 3—Monday's Game Hard Fought with Pekin in Great Fielding Strains.

Playing consistent baseball and for the most part getting the breaks of the game, the Pekin Rainbows made it three straight from the Indies by winning Sunday and Monday at South Side park.

The score of Sunday's game was 6 to 4 and Monday the final score was 4 to 3 with the Indies dying fighting.

It was not much of a game Sunday. Both teams were off in their fielding and none of the pitchers were in form. Hamm worked the entire game for Jacksonville. He got away to a bad start but the Indies forged to the front and looked like winners until the fourth. Then Pekin tied the score. In the fifth the visitors added two more and that was enough to win.

Pekin started Kiebler but the locals got to him in the fourth for their four runs. Then Doren went in. He didn't have anything but his glove and a pose but it was enough to beat the locals who are noted for being unable to hit dub pitching.

The game Monday was a contest good to look at the not up to that of Saturday. Neither Claude or Padgett had the stuff they had in the first game. Claude did not get warmed to his work until the third inning.

In the first the Indies had a chance to get to him but were unable to take advantage of it and that lost them the chance to win as he improved as the game progressed and held the locals safe until the eighth when three safeties and an error put over two runs. However with two on White took in Christopher's fly and ended the inning.

How the Runs Were Made—Pekin got two in the first. White took second on Denny's wild heave. Brown struck out. Dittmer singled scoring white and took second on the throw to the pan. Denny threw out Calahan. Dittmer taking third. He scored on Bennett's single.

A walk to Clay, Vedel's single and two sacrifices put over a run in the second. Vedel's single, a base on balls to Paria, Claude's sacrifice and a fielder's choice scored their last run in the fifth.

The Indies also got one in the first and should have gotten more. Claude walked Denny and Wheeler sacrificed him to second. He scored on Ruble's single. Briggs singled but Ruble was caught at third on Clark's tap to Clay and DeFrates struck out.

Claude then got to going and held the Indies scoreless until the eighth. However, the locals had men on in the third but Claude tightened and made Briggs and Clark whiff.

In the eighth the Indies made a determined attack on Claude and it looked like they were going to take his measure. Riggs was out. Brown to Bennett. Denny was safe on Bennett's error. Wheeler singled sending Denny to second.

Ruble flied to White. Briggs singled scoring Denny and sending Wheeler to third.

Claude then purposely walked Clark to bring DeFrates up. DeFrates demonstrated his judgment was bad by busting the ball into left field a mile a minute. Vedel started to make a shoe string catch, but saw he couldn't reach the ball. He stopped and the ball bounced right into him thus preventing a tie as Briggs did not take a chance to score on the hit. Christopher ended the rally by flying to White.

WORKS HARD TO AVERT FLU EPIDEMIC
Government and City Health Officials Warn People to Keep Clean Stay Away from People with Coughs and Colds.

"Avoid crowds if you want to keep your hands clean, drink plenty of fresh water; sleep with windows open; eat three uniform meals a day including a good breakfast. People who have catarrh or frequent colds invite influenza, declares a prominent Kentucky druggist.

The membrane of the throat and nose is raw, sore and tender, and makes a lovely abiding place for germs to thrive and multiply. He advises an inexpensive home-made remedy that will bring relief in less than a day and will stop all discharge and soothe and heal the inflamed membrane in a few days.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Four three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcline into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled. Gargle the throat as directed and sniff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat clean and healthy. Nearly all druggists dispense Mentholized Arcline in vials containing exactly three-quarters of an ounce, which is all you need to make a pint of this healthful medicine.

Notes. Vedel played a wonderful fielding game for Pekin. He grabbed drives from DeFrates and Clark that were great bits of fielding. Pitcher Claude did not have the stuff that he displayed on Saturday. However, he slow balled the locals to death and had them swinging in vain for a safety. Grady caught a great game for Jacksonville. He was death to

COL. FRANK SMITH IS SENATE CANDIDATE

Dwight Man Is Fourth to Enter Contest—Will Have Chicago City Hall Backing.

(From Chicago Tribune.) Col. Frank L. Smith of Dwight, Ill., chairman of the Republican state committee, and representative in congress from the Seventeenth district, yesterday for the Republican nomination for United States senator.

He is the fourth candidate formally to enter the senatorial race, the others being William B. McKinley, former Speaker Edward D. Shurtleff, and Col. B. M. Chip-erfield. Col. Smith is expected to have the backing of the local city hall forces, in return for which he is counted upon to recognize the Thompson county committee, which the supreme court declared illegally elected, the de facto Republican organization in Cook county. His position as chairman of both the old and the new Republican state committees gives him the power.

Plea for United Party. Col. Smith's announcement contains a plea for "harmonized and united" Republican party. It also states his opposition to the league of nations, in language which is expected to be satisfactory to his city hall backers.

"I believe that our party should make the early establishment of peace and the cultivation of good will, both at home and abroad, a fundamental policy," he says. "I believe that a Republican senate, working together, should and can, agree upon conditions of peace abroad which will do essential justice and go far to prevent war but which will not obligate the United States to intervene in foreign disputes except when impelled to do so by their own choice in defense of the right and which will respect the entire independence of this country and its well established policy for the western hemisphere."

Opposes Any Entangling League. "So for these reasons I am unalterably opposed to any league of nations which will involve the country in entangling alliances with the old world powers. We can not safely begin the cultivation of peace at home. For the year and a half that we were in the war we incubated, artificially stimulated, and deliberately induced a spirit of hatred. The war is over, but the hatred it engendered remains a plague us. We will free ourselves from it only when we consciously set about to bring a restoration of fellowship and good feeling. As Republicans, let us make a beginning in our own family."

Expected to Hasten Union. Col. Smith's announcement of his candidacy will, it is predicted, give impetus to the efforts of the leaders of the Lowden-Dee-teen-Brundage forces to unite upon a single candidate for United States senator to defeat the city hall entry.

The question of the selection of such a candidate is now in the hands of a sub-committee.

base runners and cut down several on the paths besides picking off two runners on the bases.

Dick Ruble pulled down a line drive for Dittmer that was tagged for extra bases. It was the only time Dittmer failed to hit safely during the afternoon.

Cap Denny had a hard day at the bat. The visitors hit them down here a mile a minute and most of them took hard rounds for Cap and kept him ducking.

Pekin has a mighty good ball team. They all hit the ball and play fast in the field. They will make any team play ball to beat them.

Peoria, Ill., July 5.—A striking example of the humanitarian spirit which characterizes the Salvation Army, is to be found in the following endorsement of Trutona, by Mrs. Lydia Nolan, a well-known Salvation Army worker, who lives in Peoria, at 1000 North Madison street. She says:

"For the past twenty years I have suffered from constipation, liver trouble, and stomach derangement. Then my system became generally broken down, after I had influenza, and with my other troubles it looked like everlasting suffering for me. I'd often be unable to eat, and I would have such severe headaches. The little food I did eat always hurt me."

"If I wrote a pamphlet I could not say enough for Trutona, and what it has done for me. My stomach is in good order now, and my appetite is excellent. But, better still, is none of the food ever hurts me any more. My kidneys are much better than I hoped for, and my constipation is a thing of the past. DISCOVERY OF A BRAND NEW WAY TO KILL GERMS

An entirely new method of destroying disease germs has just been discovered by Dr. C. E. Miller of Bethlehem, Pa. The public announcement of the discovery was made at the annual convention of the American Osteopathic Association which opened in Chicago the first of July.

This new cure for germ diseases is accomplished without the use of medicine, serum, or surgery. Dr. Miller is a regular osteopathic physician, but the technique which he uses, although mechanical, is entirely novel in osteopathic procedure. He calls it a specific cure for all bacterial infections, such as influenza, pneumonia, diphtheria, and typhoid.

Absorption of toxins is nature's method of curing acute infectious disease, says Dr. Miller; therefore, the best treatment is one of which causes the most rapid absorption. Dr. Miller says the logical conclusion is to absorb the toxins before they have accumulated, and obtain an early reaction while the patient is strong.

Two thousand osteopathic physicians, specialists, and surgeons, from all over the country attended the convention. The first announcement was made at this convention of the establishment of an endowed Osteopathic Research Institute in Battle Creek, Michigan, to be devoted exclusively to the osteopathic cure of epilepsy, under the direction of Dr. Hugh Conklin, of that city, who is president of the American Osteopathic Association, and who presided over this convention.

Sleeping sickness, the mysterious new disease, has been conquered by osteopathy, according to Dr. James Fraser, of Evans-ton, Ill., who reported his discovery at this session. Glaucoma, a supposedly incurable disease of the eye, is reported now to be curable by a new osteopathic procedure, which was demonstrated for the first time at this convention by Dr. James D. Edwards, of St. Louis.

where he was superintendent of the State School for the Deaf. Mr. Read was a son of the late Rev. Frank Read and was born in this city. After attending the public schools here he entered Illinois College and graduated in the class of 1888. For a number of years he was instructor at the School for the Deaf here. Then he was appointed superintendent of the South Dakota school and the institution had grown and been developed along modern lines under his leadership. Mr. Read was thoroughly interested in the deaf and the best years of his life were given to educational lines of work. A man of fine character and spirit, the news of his sudden and untimely death will bring sorrow to many hearts. The deceased is survived by his wife and daughter Miss Margaret Katherine of Devil's Lake; his mother Mrs. Cassie Read of this city; another brother, Rev. Utten E. Read of the School for the Deaf at Columbus, Ohio, and a third brother, David E. Read, of the School for the Deaf at Edgewood Park, Pa.

The remains will be taken to Olathe, Kans., the former home of Mrs. Read and there interment will be made.

RETURNS FROM EAST

H. T. White, managing officer of Illinois School for the Deaf, returned yesterday from a meeting for three organizations, one in honor of the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of Mount Airy School for the Deaf, the American Instructors of the deaf, and the Association for the promotion of the teaching of speech.

About four hundred superintendents, principals, and teachers were in attendance at this convention. Those in attendance from Jacksonville were: H. T. White, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Snyder, Miss Amanda Davis, Miss Anne Berkely and Miss Anna Kingsley.

FIGHT ON COMMERCIAL VICE GIVEN IMPETUS

Committee of Fifteen Gains Fresh Impetus in Fight on Vice in Chicago from Taft's Address at Annual Banquet.

Chicago, Ill., July 2. — Fresh impetus was given the committee of fifteen's fight on commercial vice in Chicago by the recent address of former President William Howard Taft at the committee's annual banquet.

"No such trade can be carried on unless the owners of city property rent or lease it for the purpose," said Mr. Taft. "The committee of fifteen have found out who the owners are of the property in the Red Light districts and have prosecuted them, giving them by notice an opportunity to stop this unlawful use of their property before taking legal proceedings. They have secured an admirable law, by which when they ascertain that property is being thus unlawfully used, they can file a bill for an injunction against its further use and thus abate a nuisance, and compel the property to lie idle for a year."

"The members of the committee are engaged in fighting an evil which is peculiarly tenacious in a great city where municipal politics come close to the ground, and in which vice corruption and blackmail too frequently play an important part. It needs courage to fight the criminal purposes and facilities of the underworld but the committee of fifteen and its superintendent have had the courage and shrewdness and common sense needed to win. They have so minimized commercialized vice in Chicago as greatly to reduce its harmful and noxious results. They must keep at it, however—eternal vigilance is the price of its victory."

In presenting his annual report Supt. S. P. Thrasher said that since the injunction and abatement law went into effect in Illinois in July, 1915, the committee had written 988 informal notices, "Of that number," he said, "807 owners or agents have taken such action as to make it unnecessary to proceed further under the law. One hundred and eighty-one of them have been careless or defiant. (I think in most cases it was carelessness rather than defiance) and the second or formal notice under the injunction law has been necessary. This law has proved so effective that only 16 injunctions have been applied for and secured. In all but two of them the injunction has accomplished all that could be desired. These two have recently defied the law and require further attention by the committee."

"We are having amicable and effective cooperation with owners and agents of property which we find to be used for immoral purposes. During the year covered by this report, 86 per cent of owners and agents notified of the illegal use of their property have acted promptly to correct the conditions of which we complained."

The committee of fifteen was organized in 1908 by 15 prominent citizens to fight the white slave traffic in Chicago. Superintendent Thrasher reports it has grown to include more than 500 citizens and had a directorate of 50. The executive committee chosen from the directors retains a membership of 15.

Expenses are met by contributions. At the meeting at which Mr. Taft spoke, Supt. Thrasher reports the committee was re-elected for the next five years.

EDUCATIONAL CONVENTION NOW IN SESSION

Salt Lake City, Utah, July 5.—Altho they will not hold their first formal session until tonight, members of the National Educational Association gathering here for their annual convention already are drawing their lines for a renewal of last year's contest, on re-organization of the organization.

The question is whether the body shall transact its business through a body of delegates elected from state education bodies affiliated into one national unit or thru the vote of all members attending the national convention as at present. Miss Margaret Haley, of Chicago, was credited with leading the opposition to this move.

VIRGINIA MINERS CLASH WITH OFFICERS

Charleston, W. Va., July 4.—State officials today were endeavoring to learn details of a clash between officers and miners at Roderfield, W. Va., late yesterday in which three McDowell men deputy sheriffs are said to have been wounded.

Prospects of clearing up facts concerning the battle were slight, however, as communication with Roderfield and Williamson has been impossible almost for the past few days. Storms have impaired wire communication.

BEARDSTOWN BOY ACCIDENTALLY SHOTS SELF

Richard, the nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Mohman, of Beardstown, was killed yesterday as the result of "trying out" an old revolver which he found in the attic.

The Old Presbyterian Church

By Capt. F. C. Taylor.

It was in the year 1838 that division of the Presbyterian church in the United States took place, resulting in what was known as the "Old School and New School Assemblies." The Jacksonville church, like many others throughout the land, was rent in twain by the division. There were three elders in the local church at that time. One of these, and a minority of the members in the church, sympathizing strongly with the "Old School Assembly," adhered to that body and carried their cause before the Synod of Illinois, which met in Peoria in September, 1838.

The Synod, after hearing the case, passed a resolution declaring that "the minority of the session and church of Jacksonville, be and they are declared to be session and church of Jacksonville."

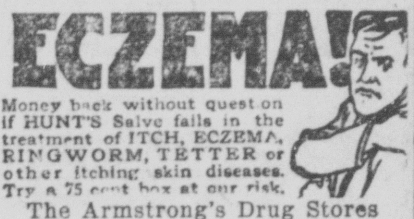

This church retained the old name, "The Presbyterian Church of Jacksonville," until 1870 when upon the reunion of the assemblies it took the name of "Central Presbyterian Church."

The Central Church was found after the division, to contain a membership of forty-two. They secured the services of Rev. Andrew Tod, of Flemmingsburg, Ky., as their minister, and he entered upon his labors in the autumn of 1838. They worshipped first for a few months in a frame building which stood on the north side of the lot now occupied by the Park hotel, on the north side of the public square. The use of this building was granted by its owner, Governor Duncan. Afterwards the house used by the Congregational church people. This house was at that time the public hall, known as the "Union Hall" and which stood on the east side of the square, in the rear of the present "Trade Palace" building which was erected several years later.

In the meantime, preparations were being made for the erection of a sanctuary for themselves, and in 1840, about two years after the division of the church, a frame building was erected on a lot on West State street in the second block west of the public square. This lot was a gift to the church by its owner, Col. John J. Hardin, as his subscription, at a cost to him of eighteen hundred dollars. The building was erected on the lot now the property of the estate of the late L. W. Chambers and where is the building now occupied by W. W. Gilliam, and the lot adjoining on the west of it. In this building the congregation worshipped for almost thirty years, leaving it only a few months previous to moving into the lecture room of the handsome and commodious brick building erected on the northwest corner of State and Church streets. While the new church edifice was being prepared for occupancy, services were conducted for a few months in the circuit court room in the court house and for a time in Strawn's Hall, by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Harsha.

Rev. Andrew Tod, who became the pastor in 1838, continued his ministry until failing health caused him to seek a warmer climate, and in the autumn of 1849 he withdrew from his duties and went to Florida, but he continued to fall in health, and on the 2nd day of September, 1850, he fell asleep at Casablanca, Florida, to awaken no more on earth.

Rev. Mr. Tod was succeeded by Rev. J. V. Dodge, who continued his pastorate for four and one-half years, when at his request in 1855 the pastoral relations were dissolved.

Capt. F. C. Taylor prepared the accompanying interesting article concerning one of the old Presbyterian churches of Jacksonville. In explaining his work Capt. Taylor wrote as follows:

I assisted in preparing the historical part of this story in 1878, 42 years ago. I have rewritten a portion of it and have added to it as far as I was able from my own knowledge and observation and from information picked up from others familiar with events of years ago.

I have endeavored to recall the names of the heads of families and so far as I was able have given the married names of the daughters of those families. Many of those whose names I have written have been called to their heavenly homes. Many have removed to other states and of those still residents of Jacksonville the number is growing less with the passing of time and their names to the coming generation will be but a memory.

I have given as near as I can the names not of members alone, but of many, who appreciating the Word as preached by the excellent pastors who were called to minister to the congregation in the church and who attended the fortities societies, or mite societies at the homes of various members of the church or in the Sabbath school rooms in the basement of the church. Thinking that a recalling of the names of those who were active in affairs of the old church in days gone by might prove of interest to some of the older residents, I have written my story.

As Joe Jefferson in his character of Rip Van Winkle says after his return from his sleep of twenty years, and found no one who remembered him, "Are we so soon forgotten when we are gone?" After the resignation of Rev. Mr. Hodge, Rev. John H. Brown, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Springfield, Ill., was the stated supply for one year. From September 1856 until the following spring, the pulpit was supplied by various ministers, but chiefly by Dr. Bergen of Springfield.

In 1857 the Rev. John W. Allen, a former pastor of the Pisgah Presbyterian church in the state of Kentucky, took charge as stated supply. Receiving a unanimous call to the pastorate, Rev. Mr. Allen was installed December 5, 1858 and continued his labors faithfully and successfully until May 1867 when he resigned. After the resignation of Mr. Allen the church had no regular supply for some time. It was dependent upon transient supplies for preaching, excepting the last six months of that period, when the Rev. R. J. L. Matthews of Vandalia, Ill., filled the pulpit.

In 1869 the Rev. Dr. Wm. Harsha was called from the South Presbyterian church, Chicago. Dr. Harsha was born in West Hebron, Washington county, N. Y. He received his college education at Union college, Schenectady, N. Y. He studied law but shortly after entering upon the practice of his profession, he decided to enter the ministry and after preparing himself, he entered the ministry in connection with the Associate Presbyterian church. He joined the Old School in 1854 and began his ministerial duties in 1856. His pastoral charges have been at Galena, Hanover, Savanna, Dixon, Chicago and Jacksonville becoming pastor of the latter city in May 1869.

He received the degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1872 from Fulton College, Mo. On going to Dixon in 1855, Dr. Harsha founded the Presbyterian Institution known as the Dixon Collegiate Institute, and was for some years its president. Dr. Harsha who was greatly beloved by his church people, went a few years after leaving Jacksonville, to visit at the home of his daughter Mrs. Ida Harsha Kendrick at Webster Grove near St. Louis, and after getting off one train he inadvertently stepped in front of a moving train on another track and lost his life. His remains lie in a beautiful spot on a knoll in the cemetery of Dixon, Ill., where lie other members of his family and relatives.

During the time that the church maintained a separate existence, more than eight hundred persons were received into its communion.

In 1874 a new house of worship was completed at the northwest corner of State and Church streets. Its cost, including the price of the lot on which it stands, was thirty-three thousand dollars.

At a meeting called for the purpose of considering the advisability of disposing of the property, a vote was taken of those present and it was the consensus of opinion that owing to incertitudes and inability to meet pressing claims, it was advisable to do so, and this was done. And the property was disposed of to the trustees of the First Baptist church of that body, and it is now occupied by them.

The members of the Central church went into the various churches of the city as they chose, other denominations than Presbyterians, received numbers into their midst.

Among persons active in the affairs of the church were the following:

Stephen Sutton and family, Sarah Stout, Abbie Craig, Jennie Cassell, Sue Dresbach, Georgia Sutton, Maggie La Fèvre, John and Henry Sutton.

Stevenson's Fight for Recognition

When George Stevenson invented the locomotive, all the forces of incredulity that ignore; the conservatism that hates; the ridicule that mocks what is new, were brought to bear to oppose his great invention. The same spirit of mockery, opposition and criticism has confronted practically every new and worthy idea.

CHIROPRACTIC UNDER FIRE

Those who accepted disease and suffering as a natural part of life's experience, laughed and scoffed when Chiropractic first launched the idea that ill health was unnatural and the direct result of spinal pressure on the nerves, which shut off the life forces of the body. And they ridiculed the idea that by simple Chiropractic spinal adjustments, without drugs or knife, this pressure could be relieved, the cause of disease corrected and normal conditions, health restored.

But in the face of it all, Chiropractic has advanced because it has proved it is right. Thousands who formerly suffered are now enjoying health through the aid of and it is rapidly being accepted as the logical, most effective drugless health science of the ages. If you are not enjoying good health, give Chiropractic (KI-RO-PRAC-TIC) a fair, open-minded investigation and prove its value to you and your loved ones.

CHIROPRACTIC
THE BETTER WAY TO HEALTH

BUSINESS VERY BRISK REPORT SAYS

Chicago Wholesale Houses Have Had Very Satisfactory Six Months, the Record Shows.

Chicago, Ill., July 5.—Chicago wholesale houses report the best six months' business they have ever done. Robert B. Beach, business manager of the Chicago Association of Commerce, said today. "Business, through the middle west is good and does not give any signs of a slump."

"I have heard from one wholesale house that June was the best six months of its history. These reports from wholesale houses mean that retail stores over the broad territory served from Chicago are doing a good business. "Conditions in the west are better, I believe, than in the east. This is largely due to a different viewpoint and feeling."

"People have been looking for trouble. They have expected, because it has happened before, that the war would be followed by a period of high prices and a panic, and that in fact a panic was the only way to get back to normal."

"That feeling has doubtless been encouraged by banking conditions and a misinterpretation of the very wise procedure of restricting loans. In view of the inflation that has come about thru the increase of business and higher prices, the banks have wisely tried to put the brakes on by limiting the expansion of credits."

"New York has had the financial point of view. Wall Street has felt the difficulties of financing. The east is closer to Europe and its financial problems."

"The common factor, however, in all panics,—over production, is not to be found at present. Business in the middle west is generally behind."

ENEMY PROPERTY WILL BE RELEASED

Amendment to Trading With Enemy Act Now Effective—Property to Value of $150,000,000 Will Be Sold.

Washington, July 5.—The amendment to the trading with the enemy act passed by the recent session of congress authorizes the return of $150,000,000 of enemy property, according to estimates of the Alien Property Custodian's office. There will remain more than $350,000,000 in seized property in the hands of that official.

Under the amendment, the "A. P. C." as the office is generally known in government circles, will release property of several American heiresses who married foreign noblemen, property of the German embassy, enemy diplomats, all aliens who were interned, citizens of new nations and states created by the treaty of peace, and women of allied or neutral countries who married enemy subjects.

Americans who were held in Germany during the war and whose property here was taken over, may now recover title, no matter where they are resident. The amendment also extends the privilege of prosecuting claims against enemy debtors to creditors in allied and neutral nations on condition that the same privilege is extended to American creditors by those nations holding enemy property.

There is to be no "informal return" of property by the Alien Property Custodian under the new legislation, it was announced today. The procedure to be followed in securing possession of seized property involves formal application to the president, and filing of a claim on the A. P. C. After the application has been approved and returned, the attorney general will issue an order for the release of the property at issue.

PHYSICIAN ADVISES PEOPLE

"My wife suffered for years with stomach trouble which did not yield to any treatment. She took a dose of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy last Saturday with wonderful results. I have practiced medicine for 20 years and have never seen anything like it before. I have recommended Mayr's Wonderful Remedy to several that I know need this treatment." It removes the catarrhal mucous from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded at all druggists.—(Adv.)

JACKSONVILLE FITTINGLY OBSERVED FOURTH OF JULY

LARGE THROGS GATHER

FOR VARIOUS FESTIVITIES

Athletic Events at Nichols Park—Dancing, Boxing and Parade in Business District—Splendid Celebration at State Hospital

Independence day was fittingly observed in Jacksonville yesterday. The a light rain just after noon caused some inconvenience and probably kept some away, there was nevertheless a large crowd here from the county and adjacent cities.

After the rain the weather cleared and the afternoon and evening were ideal for outdoor events. The parade while not large was made up of some good features and was viewed by large throngs.

At Nichols park in the afternoon there was a program of athletic events. There also was boating and fishing and many picnic parties spent the day there. There was dancing in the large pavilion both afternoon and evening and in the evening many were in attendance.

Perhaps the most interesting celebration was that at Jacksonville State hospital. Elaborate preparations had been made for the event and the celebration lasted throughout the day, ending with a picnic supper and fireworks. Then the employees enjoyed dancing until 12 o'clock.

The float prepared by the patients of the occupational therapy department won the prize in the downtown parade. All of the expense of the celebration was paid with money secured thru bazaar and other entertainments.

Down in the business district platforms had been erected for dancing and vaudeville. Many took advantage of the dancing and enjoyed the vaudeville.

In the evening Al Baldwin of this city and Wells of Springfield boxed three rounds which were greatly enjoyed. Two colored boys, Clarence Britt of this city and Rolf Brinkman of Springfield, boxed a three round preliminary.

At State Hospital

Independence Day was celebrated yesterday at the Jacksonville State Hospital, by the patients, the employees, and the public. From morning till midnight there was something going on continuously.

The morning was passed in contests for the employees and patients the winners of which were:

100 yard dash for male patients—Harry Bevier.
Sack race for female patients—Miss Anna Chandler.
Egg race for female employees—Miss Carmichael.
High jump for male patients—Felix Alder.
Nail driving contest for female patients—Miss Emma Whalen.
Broad jump for male patients—Arthur Wood.

Tug of war—Female patients. The west wing won from the north annex.

Tug of war—Male patients. The main building won from the annex.

Tug of war—Female employees. Attendants won from the detail. Three legged race—Male patients—Felix Alder and Dick Hall. Fat ladies' race for female patients—Mrs. Caroline Vaughn.

Pig-a-back race for male patients—Clinton Hall, Mr. Cordovan.

Doughnut eating contest for female patients—Mrs. Jennie Pugsley.

Relay race for male patients—Main building won from the annex.

50-yard dash for female employees—Miss Della Hopkins.

Potato race for female patients—Miss Eva Gordon.

Sack race for male patients—Felix Alder.

Pie eating contest for male patients—Eddie Strand.

Relay flag race for female patients—The north annex won from the west wing.

Sack race for male employees—George Steward.

Cracker eating contest for male and female patients—Mrs. Grace Mann.

Mays "Oracles" won a hard fought game from Reese's "All Stars" by a score of 9 to 8 early in the afternoon. The batteries were: Oracles, Hall, Berry; All Stars, Reese, Vasconcellos.

When the ball game and the parade were over the patients, employees and an unusually large number of the public gathered around the stage on the campus to witness a first class vaudeville performance which was put on entirely by patients of the hospital, although it was evident that many visitors did not realize it. The program was:

Program
Piano solo—Flora Newton.
Heavy balancing—Cuddington.
Musical reading—Hough.
Contortionist—Peabody.
Plantation song—Dorothy Roberts, Turnbull.

Acrobatic act—Cuddington and Peabody.
Vocal solo—Kinzle.
Recitation—Ziegler.
Vocal duet—Hough and McRoy.
Oceorena solo—Ebeling.
Selection by the full chorus.

After a picnic supper on the campus a community sing was held. This lasted from seven until eight o'clock and then a fine display of fireworks was given.

The patients were taken to the wards at 10:00 o'clock and the employees enjoyed a dance from that time until 12 o'clock. The cost of the celebration was paid for with money made at bazaar and donated by friends and therefore cost the taxpayers nothing.

The Parade.
When the parade finally got under way crowds were lined along the line of march.

Henry Strawn, as marshal and flag bearer, led the column from Prairie street down West State street to the square, around it and down South Main street to Morton avenue, west to the Morton avenue gate and in around the State hospital grounds to the Main Street gate where it broke up.

The Merritt band playing live-ly airs came first after the marshal. They were followed by the veterans of the Civil war in automobiles, and then came the Service Star Legion representatives in a light truck decorated in bunting and stars. A troop of the Boy Scouts came next. They were followed by several decorated cars and then came the first float, the Essex car which D. N. James drove to St. Louis in record time mounted on a truck. Mrs. Yeck of Springfield with a car decorated with red flowers on a white body with white doves on the front, came next. This car took the prize for the best decorated car.

The next section of the parade was from the Jacksonville State Hospital. The Winchester High School band which was secured for the day at the hospital led.

Then came the prize winning float, The Old Lady Who Lived in a Shoe, which was a large white shoe in which were eighteen young ladies, nurses in the Occupational Therapy department of the State hospital. The float was designed by Miss Carolyn Hoppe, superintendent of the occupational therapy department and was made by patients in her department.

Mrs. Hill's float, a large boat bearing Liberty and guided by Uncle Sam, came next, and the third was a girl in a bower of flowers driving a swan.

More decorated cars passed and then came the float of Powers-Begg packing company with their products displayed against a background of red, white and blue. The Virginia band closed the rear of the column, but a large number of cars followed the parade out and either went on to Nichols Park or stopped at the State Hospital where a vaudeville show was in progress.

Miss Hoppe, whose float won the prize made the statement when notified of the award that the money would be used for the entertainment of the patients at the State Hospital.

At Nichols Park

Results of athletic contests at Nichols park are given:

25 yard dash, girls, 10 to 14 years—Prize box candy, won by Bernice Doolin.

Children's race, 6 to 8 years—Prize, piece of money, won by Bernice Black.

Children's race, 5 to 7 years—Prize, piece of money, won by June McDonald.

Boys' free for all—Prize, pair of socks, won by Leslie Blue.

Three legged race—Prize $1.00 in trade, Mullenix & Hamilton's stand, won by Claude Cook and Joan Hutchins.

50 yard dash, boys' free for all—Prize, box Prince Albert tobacco, won by Louis Cannon.

25 yard dash, boys 10 to 14 years—Prize, pocket knife, won by Herschel Phillips.

Married women's race—Prize, four pounds sugar, won by Mrs. Herman Miles.

Free for all men's race, 75 yards—Prize, box cigars, won by M. Baldwin.

75 yard dash for men 50 years or over—Prize, box cigars, won by A. W. Judd.

Three legged race, free for all, 25 yards, won by Brown and Frye.

The winners ran a 25 yard dash for the prize which was won by Brown.

The officials were:

Starters—Fred E. Darr.
Clerk of Course—J. S. Findlay.
Awarder of Prizes—A. D. Taylor.

Judges—T. P. Carter, E. H. Gray.

The small attendance of veterans of the civil war was owing to the fact that the commander and no one else had been notified of the desire of the management to have them take a part in the parade and hence no call was issued out but it was impossible to reach all the old boys and some of them had other engagements and some were not in condition to ride.

The failure of the aeroplane was a great disappointment to many who had counted at least on that attraction and visited the park to see it. The concert Merritt band was an enlivening feature and much enjoyed by all present. The two swimming boat riding, and refreshment stands all served their part. A great many visited the park during the evening though many remained but a short time. The best of order prevailed and people were generally good natured and intent on making the best of everything.

EXPLOSION INJURES LEONARD BENTO

Receives Painful Burns About the Face When Cannon Explodes—Injured Man Formerly in Navy.

Leonard Bento of North Fayette street was seriously burned about the face Monday morning when a cannon which he was shooting exploded. Bento had been shooting the cannon during then morning and it became overheated. After putting in a load of powder Bento lighted the fuse and stepped back a few feet. The back end of the cannon blew out and the full charge of the back fire struck Bento in the face. He also received a slight cut on his shoulder. Dr. Rowe was called and dressed the injuries.

Bento is a former naval man and was familiar with handling cannons. When the cannon was about to discharge Bento closed his eyes which probably saved them from being powder burned.
